LANCASTER, PA.
H. L. HARTMYER, BOOK AND JOB PRINTER.
1882.

LANCASTER, MARCH 23rd, 1882.

Owing to circumstances beyond our control, we have been a trifle longer in the preparation of this catalogue than we had expected and not desiring to delay the sale for any longer period, we are compelled to hold several consignments for our Fifth Sale which will take place about May 1st, and will include in addition to a number of fine coins, a selected lot of paper goods, Fractional Currency, Confederate and Colonial Notes, Autographs, old Almanacs, War Envelopes, etc.

We have also purchased the Eaby collection of Fine Cents, the best pieces from the Brechemin cabinet, and are in negotiation for two other choice collections, the best pieces from all of which will be selected and sold at auction during May or June, this sale containing with scarcely an exception only choice pieces—not "every piece a gem" but running with uniform fineness or rarity.

Goods and priced catalogues from present sale will be sent as soon after sale as possible but as we have about 100 packages to get ready from every sale, it will take from three to five days to get them all off and the catalogues being priced last may take a little longer—so if goods are not received in a day or two, do not feel anxious as we will drop postals to all who do not secure anything. Thanking all for past patronage and hoping to secure many bids for present sale I remain, Yours, truly,

CHAS. STEIGERWALT,
130 East King St., Lancaster, Pa.
